Cabernet Franc Delle Venezie

Veneto IGT is the region-wide "Indicazione Geografica Tipica" title for the Veneto region in northeastern Italy and is one of the country's most widely used appellations. It covers a broad range of wine styles from Veneto, the engine room of Italy's wine industry. We produce this Cabernet Franc wine in the Triveneto area, which is a historical region of Italy. The area includes the three regions of Venezia Euganea, Venezia Giulia and Venezia Tridentina.

Tasting Notes
This beautiful and extraordinary wine has an intense ruby red color, and is a light, medium-bodied wine with hints of herbal and dark spices. It is dry and rich in taste sensations on the tongue that are pronounced and pleasant in the mouth. This wine is well-structured and balanced with pleasant soft and silky tannins. It is the perfect wine to enjoy with herb roasted chicken, braised beef ribs, polenta and aged cheese. It also goes well with lentil soups. Served best between 61-64°F/16-18°C.
