Prosecco DOC Treviso

Extra Dry

Proseccos from Treviso are some of the highest quality Proseccos on the market. These wines, made from the Glera grape hail from vineyards in northeastern Italy within the Treviso province of Veneto. Stricter production regulations in the Treviso province led to the creation of the Prosecco di Treviso DOC classification.

Tasting Notes

Straw yellow with green highlights, BonDea Prosecco DOC Treviso Extra Dry provides a wonderful bouquet of intensity that is fresh and fruity like a green apple, and its floral nose emits a delicate hint of acacia flowers. The fresh and fragrant nature of this wine, together with its visible perlage, or efferevescence, makes it an excellent wine for drinking as an aperitif. It pairs well with hors d'oeuvres and is well-suited to serve with meat, pork, chicken and grilled fish. Best served between 43-46°F/6-8°C.
